Dear Mr Stephenson,

The Advert Regulations only require one plan to identify the site location and the proposed signs indicated on the plan.

But in your case, as you have done a separate Location and Site plan, I suggest that it may be easier for you amend the Location plan to show 2 roads and a north point. Then submit an amended proposed site plan to show the position of the proposed signs on the building and/or land (most people draw an arrow to each one as it is hard to show on a building).

I hope this helps.

Regards,

Karen.

Karen

Thank you for your letter. Please can you confirm which plan the following point refers to?

Please submit an amended scaleable plan to include 2 road names, the direction of north and the position of the proposed signs on the buildings/land.

We are collating the requested information for both applications and will respond ASAP.

Thanks

David

Dear Mr Stephenson,

Thank you for the attachments. However, please could you substitute the attached proposed elevation plans for the amended site and location plans as requested in my letter.

Then I will validate the file.

Many thanks.

Regards,

Karen

Karen

Please find attached a revised location plan, along with the existing elevation drawings, as requested.

I trust the application will be validated on that basis.

Regards

David
