

T1 - Horse Chestnut - Fell - showing signs of canopy thinning around 40% of canopy affected, suspected Pseudomonas syringae in lower stem. Due to the low vitality of the tree these wounds appear to be struggling to occlude. Re Plant with x1 Gleditsia triacanthos 12-14 as close as practical to tree being removed.