

From: Paul Smith [REDACTED]
Sent: 12 September 2019 11:03
To: Simon Davis
Subject: The Ship Inn

Dear Sir

Please add this email to the objections received in connection with the current planning application for the former ship inn site, Aldwick. As any assistance in enabling the site to reopen as a convenience store would only help in increasing the traffic chaos that ensued when large delivery lorries parked in the narrow street during the time of the last two failed attempts to run a convenience store on the site.

Regards
Paul Smith