Hi Gary,

Thank you for providing the amended plan. However, could you please add numbers to the scale bar? Once this has been added, the application can be made valid.

Kind Regards

Iqraa Malik

Dear Gary,

Thank you for providing the additional information. However, the cross over plan is not measuring to scale. Please review and amend accordingly. It may be easier to hand draw this plan.

Kind Regards

Iqraa Malik

Dear Gary,

Thank you for providing the plan. However, this application is still invalid as the location plan requires a red outline around the site boundary, a block plan with dimensions of the cross over is also required. Along with this, a CIL form must be completed; I have attached a blank copy above, please fill in and return via email

Kind Regards
