

From: John Cox [REDACTED]
Sent: 03 October 2018 10:34
To: Karen Parsons
Subject: Ref: AW/267/18/T
Importance: High

Dear Ms Parsons

With reference to our conversation I would confirm that removal of three branches will help reduce the weight and hopefully stop the eucalyptus tree from bending further over the adjoining maple tree.

As I explained much of the growth is over an adjoining maple tree which obscures the top of the eucalyptus.

However peering through the leaves I'm certain that the removal of three branches will alleviate the strain on trunk.

I did include some photos with my application.

Yours sincerely

John Cox