Hi

Thank you for your continuing patience.

Please advise if the choices proposed below are acceptable:

- For brick (to match No. 24): from the Carlton Capital range, the Mapplewell Light bricks, made by Michelmars. Here is a link to manufacturer's website:
[REDACTED]
- For tile: The existing ones (on No. 24, No. 26 and surrounding properties) are concrete sandfaced "single pantiles" in varying shades of red/brown. The only 3 current ranges of such tiles we could find are offered by Marley, Redland and Sandtoft. Please find below a link to the Sandtoft Shire range:

- [REDACTED]
(of these, I propose the Mottled Red Sandfaced as being the best match). I'd be happy to bring along a physical sample or, of course, to accept your suggestions.
- If you're looking on Google, you'll find that Street View offers an older image than Maps. They had their roof "restored"/painted at No. 24 a few years ago, hence only Google Maps now shows the current colour of their roof.

- This I believe matches best with the Mottled Red tiles from Sandtoft
- Please let me know your thoughts and/or your suggestions, for which I will be very grateful. I don't mind taking the time to get this right.

Thank you again for your assistance in this matter.

Regards,

Gabriel

Dear Gabriel

Thank you for speaking with me this morning.

As I explained, I have the samples you submitted but I need the specific colour details for both – there are about 15 red-brick colours for London Brick and 4 Redland Pantile colours in the ranges. I do not need you to submit more samples thank you as we have quite a few here, if you could please just confirm the colour name for each that will be fine.

After today I am not back in the office until next Tuesday but if you have any questions please don't hesitate to email me and I will answer as soon as I can.

Yours sincerely

Samantha
