Dear Sirs,

Re: Planning application – AW/276/21/HH

I have noticed a minor drawing error on the Ground Floor Plan and the West Elevation in respect of the Annexe outside door. I have corrected this and attach hereto the full set of drawings with no.s 1 & 5 indicating a revision. As will be seen on the Ground Floor Plan, the door was placed slightly hidden and about 0.5m from the correct location. I believe you will agree this makes no material change to the proposed development.

Please accept my apologies for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Yours faithfully

Ian Oldfield
