Subject: Re: AW/28/19/PL.... Rear of 276 Aldwick Road Aldwick PO21 3QH

Dear Sir,

Further to my email yesterday on the above subject concerning the pond area.

I omitted to include the current parking area (2 cars) facing the fence, this being lost to people visiting the pond area under the current plans.

I would suggest that either people exiting the new property exit at the roundabout as currently, OR plans be made to exit to the main road with perhaps left turn only.

In answer to the Notice 'House Building Near Duckpond' - "Do you want a house built with entrance using the lay-by and parking area", the answer is clearly NO.

Thank you for reading.

OBJECTION

Dear Sir,

It is of great concern that another building may be squeezed in to this popular attractive pond area, I have visited it many times, it is a quiet get-away area.

Obviously this will go ahead as objections like this never seem to be effective and taken seriously, no consideration for the peace and tranquillity of such an area as this are considered, which will please the builder for his profit margins!.

Sincerely,

G. Scott
