Mr Jefferies,

Thanks for your e-mail.

We have checked the weekly list that was published on the web-site. It does contain notification of the above application.

Dear Mr Vick

Please find attached the text of an email sent to Mrs Easton on 15th Dec. to which I have had no reply yet. The lady may be away on holiday or only be in the office periodically.

It is self explanatory. Clearly my concern is that if it was not advertised in the press or on line before the 13th Dec when the Decision was published, some may not have been able to comment. I may have missed it, but I think not.

Kind regards and best wishes over Christmas.

Ian Jefferies

Dear Mrs Easton

My name is Ian Jefferies, Deputy Chairman of CHECAA and one of my responsibilities is to track Planning Applications as they appear on Arun's weekly listings.

I note on the Weekly list dated 7 Dec is the Decision on the above Application AW/303/18/TC.

I have no record of this application having been initially advertised in the previous listings. Fortunately, there are Yellow notices still displayed at both addresses. The web listings however are important as it is these that don't get removed or blown away.

Would you be kind enough to tell me from which list I may have missed that original publication. I have checked the current ones on the website and can find no trace of it. This is important to my Association as we take the opportunity to comment on Applications where we have something to raise.

Yours sincerely.

Ian Jefferies
