

Both of these trees have been inspected by Mr John Bentley of Aruntree Company. He has advised that as the application is to fell both trees, and they are not covered by a TPO, then a survey is not required.