

Memorandum

As I understand it, a report is only required if the trees are diseased, or causing structural damage. Since neither of these are the case, a report has not been obtained.

Scott Markham

