Dear Sir/Madam

Town & Country Planning (Control of Advertisement) (England) Regulations 2007 (as amended)

Installation of various signage.
The Ship Inn Aldwick Street Aldwick

Thank you for your internet representation made on 28th January 2020 which has been recorded as 'an objection' with the comments as follows:

*Dear Sir or Madam,
I wish to enter my objection to the proposed signage that has been applied for regarding the Ship Inn site.
The signage is wholly inappropriate for the area which includes listed buildings. How do garish neon signs fit in with the otherwise understated signage of the nearby shops and commercial units. It certainly does not.*

*My wife and I moved to Aldwick nearly 7 years ago having searched for a number of years for the right place on the coast to move in retirement from south London. Our criteria was near to the sea, near to a pub and within our price range. Not long before our moving day we discovered that our nearby Pub - The Ship In - had closed. We were to say the least very disappointed. To find out that the greed of the then landlords Enterprise Inns setting such high rents to the licencees, making it impossible for them to make sufficient profit to make a go of it, makes us very angry.
We are hardly surprised that the two "convenience stores" have failed, because we already have several already. We do not need any more. What we are short of is a Pub.
Please let us have our Ship Inn back.*

Kind regards
