Subject: OBJECTION TO: AW/337/19/A One Stop Shop Signage for the Ship Inn Site

Dear Ms. Willard,

My wife and I strongly object to the proposed One Stop signage. It is excessive, unnecessary, brash and inappropriate.

May we remind you that the building lies at the heart of Aldwick village. It is close by the site of the common and opposite what used to be a Post Office and is now a local convenience store. This store, Tudor News, has been in business for many years and manages to do so with very modest signage and one A-board. Its neighbouring shops carry on business in a quiet and unobtrusive way, without the need for vulgar and overly bright signage, so preserving the notion that we still live in a village. The Ship Inn building will not be beautified by the addition of garish advertising and overly bright lighting. The lighting will, no doubt, greatly irritate the residents living in the flats above Tudor News.

We all know where the Ship Inn building is and my wife and I, amongst many others, will be boycotting the facility. The more ugly the signage and bright the lighting, the more determined we will be to avoid using One Stop.

Yours sincerely,

Simeon and Mary Hopkins
