

According to Arun District Council's Validation Requirements for Tree Applications, an arboricultural statement is not required for works to a tree in a conservation area.