Dear Simon,

Thank you for your email. We provided the necessary arboricultural information back on 25th June and set out how this addressed the recommendations set out in Mark's consultee response dated 29th May. As mentioned previously the plans have been amended to include the sweet chestnut trees to the front of 259a Aldwick Road and the report is more specific in terms of works to trees – removing the word 'overall' from the report/plan. We consider this information should be sufficient to remove any objection in arboricultural terms and we are happy to agree to a condition for a construction management plan detailing delivery and storage areas in order to protect the trees during construction, and for arboricultural visits to be controlled by condition in the usual way. Please can you give an indication of when this may be issued.

Kind regards,
Natalie

Dear Natalie,

I have today started the report. However, I have realised that I have not yet had final tree comments and so have chased Mark Warwick. I will continue working on the report in the meantime.

Kind Regards
