Dear Charlotte,

Thank you for taking the time to speak with me this morning.

As per our conversation, having gained a better understanding of the product and it's qualities and usage I can confirm that the cladding sample you have in your possession is the exact cladding we propose to use for our extension (as is).

No further treatment is required for the product.

Please can you confirm that you have received my email.

I look forward to speaking with you again.

Many thanks
Annaliesa
