Dear Mr. Wood,

Thank you for all this information – particularly that which adversely affects the spacial relationship between properties which is so very important at this specific juncture in Kingsway. You will see it embraced in the SPD of the ASC and the CD Statement as well a being emphasised in the letter from Graham Steaggles, the Senior Inspector of Historical Places, including CA's for the south of England, with English Heritage who reported BEFORE designation and dwelt upon this aspect – particularly, he said. at first floor level.

Kind regards,

Richard Ostler, Chairman, CHECAA.

Mr. Ostler,

The agent has confirmed that the applicant is Mr. Gary Deal and the application details have been updated accordingly.

Amended plans have been submitted which retain the current roof shape, use red clay roof tiles and red brick at first floor level as well as removing the overhanging veranda on the front elevation at ground floor level. This was based on suggested amendments by the Conservation Officer. These are considered to improve the scheme and further public consultation is not considered necessary.

Thank you,

Andrew Wood

Dear Mr. Wood,

Who is the 'Gary' writing the email of the 9th April, posted on the 10th under 'Consultation', please?

Who is the OWNER – the Agent, Butcher (ex-ADC) appears to claim to be the owner and agent. Yet a Solicitor appears to act for the Deceased 'OWNER'! He must, surely be an Executor? Which means Butcher cannot be the owner!

Thanks and regards,

Richard Ostler, Chairman, CHECAA
