

M Robson
50 Kingsway
Craigweil Estate
PO21 4DN

11/01/21

Prunus appears to be completely dead, a large part was recently blown down in high wind

It is clearly dangerous to leave in its present condition and it needs to be removed

Two conifer trees are also showing die back, they are not in a good condition are in an unsuitable position for large trees next to a boundary wall and in between two drives

Their appearance does not enhance the the street scene in any way and we consider it would be better to replace them with smaller shrubs