The update is that it is on the committee agenda for 14 November recommended for approval. Agenda will be published on Friday.

We can't answer on behalf of Cllr Brown on the issue of why she asked for it to go to DCC.

Subject: Planning Application AW/85/18/HH

Dear Mrs Brown

My wife and I would very much like to discuss with you our planing application AW/85/18/HH.

We submitted our original application in March this year, and after much consultation with Arun District Council planning officers Andrew Wood and Martyn White - including a significantly revised set of plans that were more than happy to recommend - we now understand that the decision will be made by committee on 14th November.

We are, frankly, at a loss as to why our application has been referred to committee when all we are seeking is permission to add a modest extension to our home, the plans of which have been extensively reviewed and recommended by the ADC planning office.

Our understanding is that committee decisions are normally called in to play when applications are submitted for exceedingly complex or large-scale building plans. The briefest scan of our application will show that our plans are anything but large or complex.

[REDACTED]

We're both deeply concerned that the family home that we have envisaged and saved for over the last ten years is never going to be realised.

Could we please arrange a time to call you or meet you to gain a better understanding of the decision-making process involved in our application.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

With thanks and best wishes

Ben Whitworth
