(DOE ref: 10/124) Nos 252 & 254 Aldwick Road

A pair of matching neatly designed detached cottages of circa 1800.
Set back from the road behind a low wall of Bognor rubble, and canted slightly towards one another. Stucco-faced. 2 storeys. Slate roofs.
End Chimneys. 2 widely spaced casement windows. Central doors beneath rectangular convex metal canopies, probably of the original period.
Brick modillion eaves cornice.
