Description of Application

Lawful development certificate for the proposed replacement of UPVC conservatory with a similar but larger version, replacement of all UPVC windows with similar, concrete rendering to all four brick elevations & construction of pitched/ponded roof over previous flat-roof extension.

In pursuance of their powers under this Act and these Regulations the Council REFUSE to certify that the development described above is Lawful for the reasons stated below.

The Arun District Council hereby certify that on 19/3/21 the development described in the First Schedule to this certificate in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule to this certificate and edged in black on the plan attached to this certificate, was not lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town & Country Planning Act 1990 for the following reasons.

- The proposed development (replacement roof to the front) conflicts with Schedule 2, Part 1, Class A e(i) of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 in that the enlarged part of the dwellinghouse would extend beyond a wall which forms the principal elevation of the original dwellinghouse.

EXTENT OF USE

Construction of replacement single storey conservatory, replacement roof and increased height to a roof addition, render and replacement windows.

FIRST SCHEDULE

The development is not considered to fall under Schedule 2 Part 1, Class A by virtue of A(e)(i) of the GDPO.

The development is demonstrated on the following plans

- Existing and Proposed Floor Plan
- Details of render
- Roof plan

RIGHTS OF APPLICANTS AGGRIEVED BY DECISION OF LOCAL PLANNING AUTHORITY

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

By Section 195 (as amended) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, where an application is made to a Local Planning Authority under Sections 191 or 192 and is refused, or is refused in part, the applicant may by notice under this subsection appeal to the Secretary of State and on any such appeal the Secretary of State:-

- a) if and so far as he is satisfied that the Authority's refusal is not wellfounded, grant to the appellant a Certificate under Section 191/192 accordingly or, as the case may be, modify the certificate granted by the Authority on the Application; and
- b) if and so far as he is satisfied that the Authority's refusal is wellfounded, dismiss the appeal.

If you wish to appeal to the Secretary of State you should write in the first instance to The Planning Inspectorate, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN.

There is no time limit for submission of an appeal following the Authority's decision.

Please note that this decision notice only relates to matters under the Planning Acts and does not give consent under any other legislation that may apply to the development. You will need to carry out your own checks to determine whether any other consents or permissions are required. For example, the Building Regulations are likely to apply to most developments, and a Highways Licence may be required from West Sussex County Council for any development within the public highway (including the placing of skips on highway land).
