

Arboricultural implications of crown reduction of Oak tree at 5 Aldwick Gardens, Bognor Regis, PO21 3QT

A reduction of the crown back to the site of previous crown reductions would bring the tree back to the appropriate size for it's position and also remove some dead wood that is overhanging neighbouring properties and out buildings.

The general condition of the tree is good and would benefit crown reduction.

11th January 2021