I am writing this letter to confirm that my daughter Nora and her husband Joe Reid split up in 2004.

They agreed that Nora would continue to live in the chalet and Joe would move into the converted stables.

I visit my daughter on a regular basis and it appears to be working well, Joe is still living in the stables.

Sally my Granddaughter, her husband and family live in the other chalet, and this arrangement has meant that both Nora and Joe can still be involved in the family life with their children and grandchildren.

Nora and Joe have adapted well to this situation and it has meant there was no disruption or upset in the family.

Yours Sincerely
