I am writing this letter to confirm that my husband Joe Reid and I split up in 2004.

It was decided that I would continue to live in the chalet and Joe would move into the converted stables because we only had the one child. She suffered with a heart condition as a child and we didn't want to cause her distress.

, Joe is continuing to live in the stables. And we have tried to be amicable during the split for the sake of our daughter and grandchildren

Sally my daughter, her husband and family live in the other chalet, and this arrangement has meant that both Joe and I can still be involved in the family life with my children and grandchildren.

We have adapted well to this situation and it has meant there has been little upset for the other members of the family.

Yours Sincerely

Nora Reid (Mrs)
