Morning,

They have put in some enhancements for biodiversity (which you can consider as net gain), but because Biodiversity Net Gain isn't actually a legal requirement in planning law yet (we are waiting for the environment bill to go through) and this was written before the proposed environmental bill was announced they wouldn't have referred it as Biodiversity Net Gain. The enhancements they have proposed are included within the Ecological Mitigation and Enhancement Strategy (July 2019).

Many Thanks

Liz
