Dear David

Thank you for your email. Russell is on leave this week, however in his absence I confirm that we are happy to extend till tomorrow 17th October. I would be grateful if you could copy me in to your email attaching the notice tomorrow.

Kind regards
Emma

Dear Mr McCourty,

I can confirm that my recommendation report for the above planning application was completed on Friday and a recommendation for approval has been made.

Unfortunately, my team leader was unable to complete his sign off checks on Friday and as such the decision was not issued. I apologise for the additional delay in the determination of this application. However, I would be grateful if you would provide written confirmation of your agreement to an extension of time until the 17th October 2017.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you wish to discuss this matter further.

Yours Sincerely,
David Easton
