Thank you for your internet representation made on 23rd August 2021 which has been recorded as support with the comments as follows:

OWPC39861

I work at Angmering day nursery and I fully support the need for the garden restrictions to be taken away due to the the children's needs, being outside is such an important part of a children's education and is so important for their both their physical abilities and mental well being and some children don't have the luxury of having a garden at home and having these restrictions in place means that some children don't get to enjoy the outdoors on there nursery days
