Hi David,

I have spoken with the client and we can agree to the three weeks extension. Whilst we are confident that drainage matters can be dealt with we would ask that we await at least for the first results from the ground water monitoring before the RM is approved to be certain that the layout is appropriate.

Kind Regards,

Sam,

I've asked here if we can put the reserved matters application on hold while the drainage is being sorted out. I've been told that 3 weeks is the maximum we can delay a decision. Please reply with your agreement to an extension of time until 12th February 2020.

From the email to and fro between yourselves and drainage it looks like the 3 weeks will be enough.

With regards

David Spring
