Nicky,

I was more intent on sending you a plan that worked and forgot to mark it accordingly.
So now attach a further plan duly coloured. You may have to change orientation to horizontal to print.

Hi David

Thank you for the attached plans, the PDF of the Location Plan now prints at A4. However, the red edge is not shown on the new plan.

Kind Regards

Nicky

Nicky,

Attached are two copies of the location plan one in PDF the other in Word – both print on A4.
I'm not sure how the previous plan turned into A3 as all were scanned at A4.

Trust on of the above will work this time.

Good Morning David

Thank you for the plans attached and the details of the visibility splays.

The block/site plan has printed at A4, but the location plan is still printing at A3. When you upload the pdf can you set the page size and sheet size to auto, and I can try that.

Many Thanks

Nicky

Dear Nicky,

I'm puzzled as I have just printed both plans out to scale on A4.

Both the site plan 1:1250 and the block plan 1:500 are attached again and trust that you can print them on A4.
The block plan has been amended to show a distance of approximately 43m in each direction 2.4m from the kerb although the actual visibility is in excess of 75m in each direction.. The speed limit on this section of road is 20mph.
