Hi David

Thank you for your e-mail advice.

As discussed earlier I agree to a further extension of time until the 15 December should the Parish Council not remove their objection as discussed.

Regards

Dear Mr Middle,

Following our telephone conversation earlier today I can confirm that a recommendation report is being prepared recommending the application for approval. Therefore, due to the objection from the Parish Council this application will need to be presented at Development Control Committee on the 13th December 2017. Therefore, I would be grateful if you could provide written confirmation of your agreement to an extension of time until the 15th December 2017.

Yours Sincerely,
David Easton
