David,

Extension to the 10th of January is agreed. We will do all that we can to get the agreement finalised as soon as possible, however as discussed if we can open discussions early in the new year about extending the period of time further I would be grateful.

Have a great Christmas
Kind regards
Serena

Dear Serena,

Unfortunately, the office seems to have been hit by sickness which in conjunction with Christmas Leave has left us with very little office cover.

Therefore, there has been no one for me to discuss this application with. As such, I would propose an extension of time until the 10th January 2018 which will take us into the new year and provide an opportunity to discuss with Neil. I would be grateful if you could provide written confirmation of your agreement to this extension of time.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you wish to discuss this matter further.

Yours Sincerely,
David Easton

Good morning David, sorry to chase, however I am conscious that it is your last day in today before the new year. Did you manage to speak to Neil about the extension of time? Can you confirm when you have extended the expiry to please?

Kind regards

Serena
