Michael,

Further to your email below, I have spoken with Richard Ferguson this morning re SDNPA's response and explained that there was some existing ecological survey information still awaited. James Blake Associates (with whom I was also on the phone to this AM) are sending this before cop tomorrow. I also shared with Richard that I am in the process of compiling a note for SDNPA, ADC, NE and the EA regarding the status of the FAS, and the approach being taken with regard to phase 2 seeking further guidance in particular on ecological assessment and design aspects.

On the strength of this, Richard has recommended that I seek a 1 month extension to the determination of the planning application that will allow he and colleagues in ecology to review the updated information and provide a further response.

I understand that Richard will be emailing you to relay SDNPA's position in the light of the telephone conversation that he and I had.

I hope that ADC can review this request for an extension, sympathetically.

Kind regards

Michael,

Thank you for the reminder. I have requested this from Ecological Consultants that undertook the work but it had slipped my mind to follow up on it. I will contact them today!

Kind regards

Importance: High

Dear Ray,

As you know, we have received an objection from our Ecological Advisors to planning application A/184/21/PL for Phase 1 of the Angmering Flood Alleviation Scheme, which is summarised below:

“ADC ECOLOGY:

Object.

Ecological surveys have been conducted on site, including some Phase 2 surveys. The results of the Great Crested Newt surveys and a Breeding Bird Survey will be required to be submitted before the application can be determined”.

Please could you submit the results of the Great Crested Newt surveys and a Breeding Bird Survey, which I will need to present to the Ecological Advisors for their comments prior to the determination of A/184/21/PL.

I look forward to receiving your reply.

Kind regards,

Michael
