Hi Michael

Our consultation response wasn't an explicit objection (or holding objection) to the scheme. Its purpose was to highlight some specific ecological considerations for you to help with considering the submitted information.

In Ray's email of 16/11 he attached a bird breeding study (previously missing in the submission) and cited statements from ecologists which I understand have been submitted.

If ADC, as competent Authority, are satisfied with this ecological information then there is nothing further I can add and raise no objection. Have you heard from your ecologist?

Many thanks

Richard
