

Planning Statement.

The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 PART 2: Minor Operations Class A permits this development alongside the potential inclusion of taller fences of up to 2m within the site. The application is submitted to illustrate that the decision making on the recently revised planning application was not based on a logical rationale and it is very concerning that the decision was an about turn at the last minute. Particularly when the application had not one objection.
