Dear Iqraa,

Further to my email on Friday, please now find a further copy of the Block Plan.

I am a little confused by what additional detail you are looking for but on this copy I have outlined the property boundary in red and the front garden which is the proposed hard standing is highlighted in orange with the dimensions annotated.

If there is anything else you need would you be able to speak to my father who is coordinating some of the work for me? His details are as follows and I have copied him into this email

Chris Maddock

Thank you for providing the block plan with dimensions. However, we also require annotations to show the proposed works. Please amend.

In regards to whether you need planning permission or not, you will have to contact the council directly who will be able to advise as we only validate the application.

Kind Regards

Iqraa Malik

FOR THE ATTENTION OF SIAN EGGINGTON

Dear Sian,

In response to the letter I received yesterday from Neil Crowther, please now find a duly annotated copy of the Block Plan as requested.

Whilst writing I wonder if you could confirm whether formal planning permission for this is actually needed. I have had conflicting advice and, as there is no pavement (so therefore no crossover or dropped kerb needed) I wonder what the situation is?

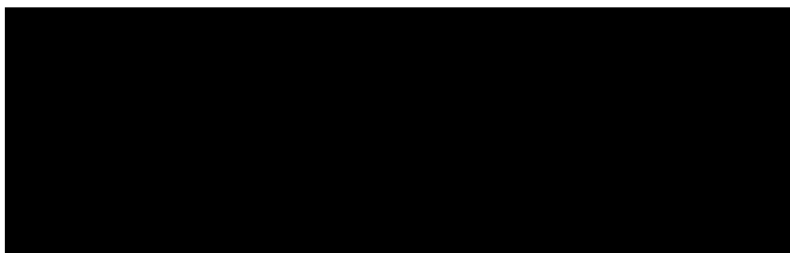

It looked to me that maybe it wasn't but decided on the cautious approach and to apply.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Sadie Sheils
