Re: Land between Ashurst and Badgers, Ham Manor Way, Angmering.

For the attention of Anita Gardner,

It has come to my notice that yet another planning application for this strip of land has been submitted, this time for the building of a very large detached house, even though a recent appeal to the Secretary of State against the previous decision of Arun District Council regarding this site was rejected.

I have lived opposite this piece of land, which was the 9th tee on Ham Manor Golf Course until recently when it was sold by the Golf Club and the tee was resited further along the fairway. I understand there have been various proposals put forward eventually going to appeal which was recently refused by the Secretary of State. This latest application is for a much larger house which will not be in keeping with those opposite which are of a more pleasing attractive design of chalet/bungalow style. Obviously I am hoping this application will be rejected, however if unfortunately it is to go ahead, I would like to make a personal appeal that any approval will be of the smaller chalet/bungalow style as described above.

I sincerely hope my representations can be taken into consideration when considering this application. With many thanks.
