Dear Zac,

I have provided further information on the glass screen and have put these on a drawing which has been posted to you today.

As can be seen the connections will be seamless so there will be very little disturbance of the original fabric and there are no demolition works except the removal of a wardrobe which of course is not original.

I hope this give you sufficient information.

Kind Regards

Rob

Dear Rob,

Do you have a response to the email below?

Also, would you be agreeable to an Extension of Time for A/4/19/HH, A/5/19/L and A/3/19/L until the 15th of March?

Kind regards,

Zac

Dear Rob,

Do you have any further information? Relating to its physical appearance, size etc.?

If you have any drawings/sketches then this also may be useful.

Kind regards,

Zac

Dear Mr. Denton,

Thank you for your email.

Yes the glazed panels will fit within a s/w timber frame which will be painted white.

If you have any further questions please advise.

Kind Regards

Rob

Dear Mr Saunders,

Regarding the above application, do you have any details relating to the glass screen, proposed in the bathroom of the development? E.g is it fully frames, glazed, what colour is it etc.

Kind regards,

Z Denton
