Hi Simon,

Would you please be able to advise whether the Engineers have indicated when they might be able to review and provide comments on the recently submitted information?

Kind regards,

Ollie

Dear Ollie,

The re-consultation request was only sent out yesterday. I will alert Engineers to it and ask that it be treated as a priority but I can't give you a date right now.

Kind Regards

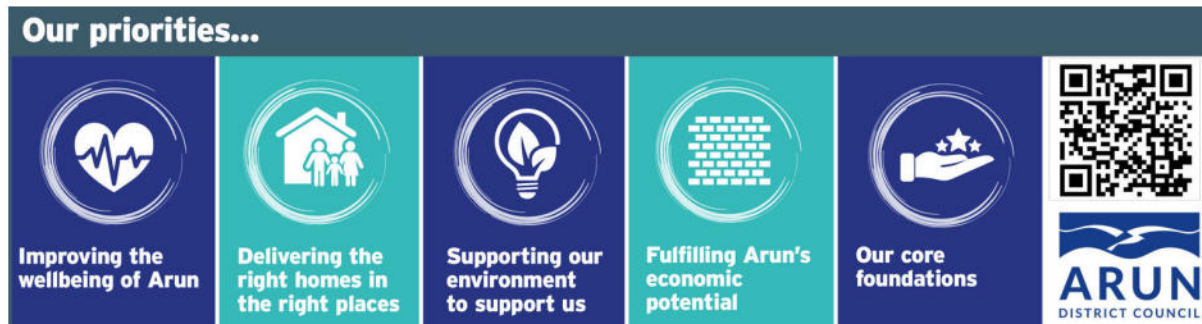

Simon

Hi Simon,

Apologies for the further email albeit I'd be grateful if you could advise on when the Drainage Engineers are likely to have reviewed this most recent submission.

As previously mentioned, Sigma are keen to carry out the works as soon as possible in order to avoid any delay being caused by the weather as we approach Winter. Our hope is that it will be possible to agree on the acceptability of the proposals with your Engineers in good time to allow for determination in August.

Kind regards,

Ollie
