CONCLUSIONSPRINCIPLE

In this case, the key policies are deemed to be D DM1 and D DM4 of the Arun Local Plan. Additionally, Policies HD4 and HD5 of the Angmering Neighbourhood Development Plan.

Policy D DM1 sets out 13 design aspects of which applications should be assessed against. These include: Character, Appearance, Impact, Innovation, Adaptability, Crime Prevention, Trees, Public realm, Layout, Public Art, Density and Scale.

Policy D DM4 sets out criteria for which applications relating to extensions and alterations of existing buildings must be assessed against. They generally seek to minimise the impact of the proposal on the character of the host dwelling, its neighbours and the locality.

Policy HD4 of the Angmering Neighbourhood Development plan seeks to ensure that development requiring planning permission which, by virtue of their materials, are inharmonious with the area, are refused.

Policy HD5 on the Angmering Neighbourhood Development Plan states that proposals should demonstrate their consideration of the proposal on its surrounding. This means that the proposed development should conform to the existing built form of the area, and constitute a positive addition to the current style, and mix. New development must integrate well with the character of the locality, and its landscape setting. Finally, it should not adversely impact upon the landscape setting, or any views in or out of the South Downs National Park.

DESIGN AND VISUAL AMENITY

Due to the siting of the proposed development, the proposed extension to the porch will be visible within the street scene of Mill Road Avenue.

As a result of its design and construction, it is considered to not represent a significant change in appearance to the host dwelling. This is because there is a porch present already, and this is a small extension to an existing porch. The proposed porch extension is considered to appear subservient to the host dwelling, and is sympathetic to its scale and appearance.

This is due to both its scale, and the use of materials to largely match the existing porch and host dwelling. Furthermore, within the locality there are examples of similar developments, as such, the proposal is not considered to appear as an alien feature within the area.

The proposed development is considered to be in accordance with D DM1, D DM4(a), (b) and (e) of the Arun Local Plan and J.01 of the Arun Design Guide which outlines that built form and character varies considerably throughout the Arun District as a whole and within the settlement character areas identified in section C.06 of the design guide. Also section M, referring to householder extensions. Extensions should respond to and complement the existing character and appearance of the building and wider townscape in terms of scale, massing. It is considered this is achieved, with the addition appearing well integrated and sympathetic in design to the host dwelling.

NEIGHBOURING RESIDENTIAL AMENITY

The proposed development is not considered to result in any harmful overshadowing or overbearing impact upon the occupiers of neighbouring dwellings. This is due to the siting of the proposed extension and its separation distance from neighbouring dwellings. W

With regard to loss of privacy, the porch is single storey, and as such it does not provide any views that are unavailable from the application site at current with the existing porch itself.

The proposed development is considered to be in accordance with D DM1(3) and D DM4(c) of the Arun Local Plan.

SUMMARY

The proposed development is deemed to accord with relevant development plan policies and as such is recommended for approval subject to the following conditions

HUMAN RIGHTS ACT

The Council in making a decision should be aware of and take into account any implications that may arise from the Human Rights Act 1998. Under the Act, it is unlawful for a public authority such as Arun District Council to act in a manner, which is incompatible with the European Convention on Human Rights.

Consideration has been specifically given to Article 8 (right to respect private and family life) and Article 1 of the First Protocol (protection of property). It is not considered that the recommendation for approval of the grant of permission in this case interferes unreasonably with any local residents' right to respect for their private and family life and home, except insofar as it is necessary to protect the rights and freedoms of others (in this case, the rights of the applicant). The Council is also permitted to control the use of property in accordance with the general interest and the recommendation for approval is considered to be a proportionate response to the submitted application based on the considerations set out in this report.

DUTY UNDER THE EQUALITIES ACT 2010

Duty under the Equalities Act 2010

In assessing this proposal the following impacts have been identified upon those people with the following protected characteristics (age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation).

The proposal would have a neutral impact on the protected characteristics.
