

Bennington House, Amgmering, West Sussex BN16 4AG

The tree in question is a small yew tree with crown dieback, in recent years the canopy has become increasingly sparse. The tree is also located very close to a listed building and wall. The proposed work would be to remove the tree and replant with a tree of a similar species.

canopy dieback

Bennington house

Trees
Location