Hello,

I spoke with someone yesterday regarding this application needing to be amended to apply to conditions 5 and 6 whereas it currently describes only condition 5. I can confirm there was a slight error in the application form and we should request a new application form that has been amended. However, in the interest of preventing delays, we are able to accept a written email explicitly describing the desired description on the application. Could we request explicit written approval for description amendments with the exact wording the description is desired to read as promptly as possible.

Kind regards,
Harry
