

Windows to be double glazed, with glazing bars integral to the construction of the windows, and six individual glazing units to each window. Glazing units to be 12mm thick.