Dear Sian,

Please see attached plan with the door and opening marked in red, showing the front door opening into the hallway not the garage

Many Thanks

Dear Sir

A colleague has also checked this application this morning and has agreed with this inconsistency. The application will remain invalid until it is amended.

Kind regards
Sian

Dear Sir

The north elevation shows the door entering what would be the garage but the floor plan is showing the door entering the bathroom. Which wouldn't be visible on that elevation.

Kind regards
Sian

It's the front door to the house? It's shown opening inward on plan it's quite correct

Many Thanks

Hello

The door on the proposed north elevation is in the wrong position in relation to the proposed ground floor plan. The position the door is in wouldn't be seen on the elevation as its opening from the bathroom outwards not the garage outwards.

Kind regards
Sian

Hi Sian,

Thanks for your letter regarding the above but I'm struggling to see what is inconsistent? Thanks

Many Thanks
