Dear Jodie,

Thanks for your email regarding the standing advice. I am aware of the advice and followed it but I thought I should consult WSCC regardless because the standing advice allows me to do so where I think the signage may distract passing traffic. In this case, two freestanding signs are proposed adjacent to the A29 northbound and whilst they are non-illuminated, they will be positioned so as to attract/inform drivers and I therefore sought a WSCC Highways opinion.

Kind Regards
