

Arboricultural Implications

As the works being proposed are quite minor, involving minimal pruning, it was not thought necessary to obtain any further professional advice, but to adhere to the advice given by the ADC Tree Office, Mr Mark Warwick, which is detailed in another attached document.