

Hello Simon,

Just writing in support of the plans to built a new stake park. I am involved in scouting in the area and I know that the boys that attend our scout group would relish a new stake-park. It would be a brilliant place for them to meet and use instead using residential areas or parks that are meant for younger children.

Best Wishes.
Eleanor Radford

Sent from my iPhone