Hello Hannah

Thank you for your email and the extension of time is fine.

Hopefully we should have some feedback this week by the sounds of it from the engineer.

Kind regards

Nick

Dear Nick,

I hope this email finds you well and you had a good weekend.

I just wanted to provide an update on the application for 21 Greencourt Drive. The engineers have provided us with an update on workloads, and I can advise I have been informed who the application is with, and that it is 2nd on their list to look at. As such, we are anticipating this will be looked at very soon, and will be chasing them to get this looked at as soon as possible.

I have been informed by my manager that, as the application is significantly over its expiry date, we do need to seek an extension of time for our records to cover the time from the expiry date until we have heard back from the engineers. Please could you let me know whether you would be happy to agree to this extension?

Many thanks in advance and my apologies again for the continued delay with this application, your patience with us is much appreciated.

Kind regards
