Hi Sian

I have adjusted the plans I sent to show doors the only window will be in the side door.

There will be no internal walls just open plan with different areas for home gym, office ,storage.

The front 3m door will be a roller door but we have showed it opening on plan inwards as wasn't sure how to show roll up door hope this makes sense.

Anything else let me know

Many thanks

Ben Snell

Dear Mr Snell

Thank you for your email, the floor plan needs to show the location of the windows and doors. I have attached an example. If you wish to draw the windows and doors onto the submitted plan that would be fine just ensure you can differentiate them from the rest of the building. We also require a room label on the floor plan of the proposed use of the outbuilding such as 'office'.

Kind regards

Sian

Hi Sian

I have attached the documents that you asked for in your letter, I called this morning and spoke to someone just to check these were the right documents.

If there is anything else you need please let me know.

Many thanks

Ben Snell
