Hi Phil,

I've just been starting to write this up for the Committee. However, I have noted that the Parish Council do not object and therefore there is no reason to take this to a committee and it can be a delegated matter. I am sorry I think I must have assumed that the Parish had objected based on their questions to me before their meeting.

I need to now concentrate on my last Committee item/report but should be able to get on with this application again next week.

Kind Regards
