

From: Jan
Cosgrove

Sent: 07 August 2017 06:39
To: Planning
Cc: Parks
Subject: BE/96/17/DOC

This is to be welcomed but I would want to see attention paid to an adequate height for fencing in view of recent incursion by dogs into such play areas where other dogs and children have been attacked. The attacking dogs have simply leapt over fencing which suggests risk assessment needs to take on this issue in new ways based on these recent events.

Jan Cosgrove
National Secretary
Fair Play for Children